Executive Consulting Services —

As an executive consultant, Mr. Napier sells his time. With his time comes all of the knowledge, skill and experience he has gained focused on whatever you need. Different clients have different needs – and different needs require different relationships. With that in mind, here are the guidelines for consulting relationships:

Wildfire Relationships:

Sometimes a client’s need is brief and simple to address. Sometimes a client is in crisis and needs an immediate, short-term intervention. Sometimes a client just wants to explore ideas for a few hours. For these, and countless other situations, the hourly rate is $1000. There is a 2-hour minimum charge for all face-to-face meetings.

Contract Relationships:

For clients with ongoing needs, two types of contracts are available:

A Standard Contract features a reducing rate as hours accumulate over the course of the entire relationship:

1-99 hours	$500/hr
100-249 hours	$450/hr
250-499 hours	$400/hr
500+ hours	$350/hr

Hours are billed as they are used. There is a 2-hour minimum charge for all face-to-face meetings. Terms are Net 10 Days. Travel expenses are the responsibility of the client and are billed separately.

A Retained Contract reserves an agreed upon number of hours to work on a client's projects each month:

10-24 hours	$400/hr
25-50 hours	$350/hr

All Retained Contracts begin on the 1st of the month. There is a minimum reservation of 10 hours per month -- and a maximum of 50. The retained rate only applies to the number of hours reserved. Retainers are paid in advance. There is a 2-hour minimum charge for all face-to-face meetings. Unused hours are forfeited. One month written notice is required to cancel a retained relationship.

Hours in excess of those reserved are billed at the full Standard Contract rate in effect at the time the overage occurs. Overtime hours are billed separately – terms are Net 10 Days. Travel expenses are the responsibility of the client and are billed separately.
